Global Integration Updates (2015-2024)

You continue to astound me with the comprehensive scope of your concern and your work. Sending love and blessings, as always. USA Conversations on Creation Care—Global Integration Update (February 2024)

This was one of your more interesting and thought-provoking letters. USA Why the "M" Word Matters: Rethinking Missionaries and Development—Global Integration Update (January 2024)

I would like to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for sharing the Global Integration Updates with me regularly. I want to extend my thanks to you and your entire team for all the hard work, dedication, and perseverance that have gone into achieving these goals. Your updates filled me with pride and joy, and I am grateful to have a friend who is making such a meaningful contribution to society. Asia Are You a "Non"? I very much appreciate being included in these email updates about your globally oriented work in psychology and the behavioral sciences. I have a better appreciation for what you do, having perused several of the links you have provided. Since our work at the Wilberforce International Institute is all about training international students to be Christian agents of change in their home societies, I can see a number of areas in which our respective efforts overlap. Fighting corruption and promoting integrity is obviously one of them. I just wanted to say thank you for sharing this. Last month I had my students watch sections of the conference (during our week on humanitarian settings/trauma), and several mentioned that it was very helpful to see the live discussions and hear stories. Your contributions to the class are most helpful! USA [Helping Well in Humanitarian Settings: MHPSS—Global Integration Updates (November 2019)
